FAQ

How will passengers know where to go?

- Passengers should first confirm terminal and gate information with their airline before leaving for LAX. Gate numbers reflect the terminals they are in (Terminal 6 contains gates 60-69).
- Upon entering the airport, updated signs will direct passengers to their terminal. Some flights have check-in at one terminal with departure from another.
- All ground transportation services (e.g. taxis, shuttles, Uber and Lyft) and airport partners (e.g. TSA, CBP) will be updated on the airlines' new terminal locations.
- During the week of the move, passengers can expect some 500 new way-finding signs, additional airport personnel, and dedicated way-finders to assist with passenger navigation.

What happens if passengers arrive at the wrong side of the airport?

- Neon green shuttle buses will be available to transport passengers between Terminals 2/3 and 5/6.
- Passengers can also use the free LAX “A” bus which operates between terminals every 10 minutes, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

What else do passengers need to know?

- Staff in neon green vests will direct passengers and answer questions in pre-security areas.
- Checking-in online and printing a boarding pass before arriving at LAX is best.
- Plan ahead and allow for extra time for walking. Some flights have check-in at one terminal with departure from another.
- After check-in, some airlines will bus passengers to a different terminal for departure.
